

CHAMPIONSHIP FIGHT TOMORROW

Tommy Burns and "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien Are Now Ready for Gong.

FIERCE BATTLE EXPECTED.

But Very Little Difference in Weight Of the Two Fighters—But Nelson to Help Man From Slowlown.

Los Angeles, May 6.—With the strenuous portion of their training at an end, "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien and Tommy Burns, who will battle before the Pacific Athletic club next Wednesday night, for the heavyweight championship of the world, today announced themselves in perfect condition, and each expressed himself as confident of gaining the victory.

From present indications the men will enter the ring with less than five pounds difference in weight. For a week Burns has remained stationary at 171 pounds.

The afternoon it was announced that O'Brien tipped the beam at the same notch.

Battling Nelson, William Nolan, "Bob" Ward, "Battling" Swanson and Abdul "The Turk" are named as O'Brien's seconds.

In the opposite corner, "Blinky" Woods, "Jimmy" Burns, "Young Brasso" and Prof. Lewis will officiate.

A difference of a point in the odds is limiting the amount of betting. O'Brien's backers offer 10 to 5 and the Burns' supporters are offering 10 to 1.

With O'Brien's favorite, some adjustment of these figures is expected before they enter the ring.

When Tommy Burns and Jack O'Brien came through the ropes at Los Angeles, they brought the fight to a close. Burns met for the championship of the world, in the heavy weight division, the first time in his career. He is, of course, understood, that one Jim Jeffries is eliminated from the reckoning.

It is not apparent, unless it be that his friends are not so sure of his ability to win out of the tight places he is sure to get into. He is undoubtedly a faster fighter than the latter is, and he is sure to get into them. In his last fight he chased O'Brien all over the ring in nearly every round, and from all accounts gave the Philadelphia a sound thrashing, but Jim Jeffries, who was the third man in the ring, remained a spectator, and he is sure to get into them.

While the fight is billed as a championship affair, the winner will have to make a settlement with Schreck, Squares, et al, before the claim will be taken seriously, and it will be with the understanding that Big Jim Jeffries is out of the game for all time.

BOXERS BEGIN WORK.

A Woman's Gratitude

"For more than a year I had been a sufferer, completely broken down. I had not slept but two or three hours any night for weeks. I had such awful misery in my head, and oh, I was so irritable. I could not depend upon my judgment, and my memory was failing. I realized that I was losing my mind, and I thought the grave, or worse, the asylum, would be my doom. My doctor said my case was beyond the reach of medicine. I went to a druggist and told him my condition. He recommended Dr. Miles' Nervine; he was pretty sure it would help me, so I bought a bottle. That night I took a table spoonful, and fell asleep in a few minutes, the first rest I had in weeks, and oh, I will never forget that sweet sleep while I live. I have continued taking it, and sleep like a baby, and gain rapidly."
